

NORM STULZ COMEDY

Norm Stulz started his professional comedy life in Detroit back in 1981 and has one on to become the industry's premier comic storyteller. Truth is always funnier than fiction and no one can tell the truth more humorously than Norm Stulz, whether it is material about raising three children, or funny stories about his childhood sweetheart and now wife Sharon Marie. Norm successfully divides his time between his family, comedy, and the many charities which he supports. Norm takes the events of his life and transforms them into hilarious pieces which are timeless. It is these stores which make Norm's brand of humor so special, and have delighted audiences nationally and internationally. Norm Stulz is truly today's Master Storyteller.

Norm raised a son that competed at the Jr. National and NCAA levels, and looks forward to performing at the USAG Jr. National Championships to share his unique perspective on the sport. Athletes, Parents and Coaches of all ages will surely enjoy this one of a kind show!

Tim Allen: "I wish I could tell a story the way Norm does... he's a master"

Detroit Monthly: "Norm is one headline performer you should not miss"

Gene Taylor (ABC): "Norm Stulz is the consummate storyteller"
